Stewardship

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life for the ransom of many." Mark 10:45

If you really looked at your life, would you see a reflection of God's mercy and love? Which do you say more often - "I want more" or "Thank you God for what you have given to me. I have enough to share"? The latter may change your perspective - and your outlook about service to others.

PILGRIMAGE TO ST. PATRICK'S IRELAND: What better way to see Ireland than with an Irish storyteller! Batt Burns, a skilled storyteller, will guide us in this Pilgrimage through Ireland, September 10-19, 2019, under the spiritual direction of Fr. Bill Rutkowski and Fr. Francis George. Our Lady of Knock Shrine, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Rock of Cashel, as well as Dublin, Ring of Kerry, Waterford, and the Cliffs of Moher are just some of the sights we will see. Daily sightseeing, Mass, lodging, meals and more are included. Early booking special, $2,799 (booked by 12/14/2018). For more information or a brochure, call Corporate Travel at 866-468-1420, or call Fr. Bill Rutkowski, 989-797-6647. An information night on the Pilgrimage will be held Wednesday, October 24, at 6:30 p.m. at St. Thomas Aquinas Parish Office Building, 5376 State Street, Saginaw, with a presentation and questions answered. Everyone is welcome to join us.
