Stewardship

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again."

John 4:13

Jesus reminds us that material things, even something as basic as water, can never satisfy us for long. When we build our lives around material possessions we always want more. True satisfaction only comes when we follow Jesus.

Dear Parishioners,

Our parish wishes to thank Fr. Ben Luedtke for the powerful and moving parish mission given this past week. It was also very informative and inspiring. If you missed the mission, you only have yourself to blame. The parish staff announced it and published it far in advance. You will have another chance to see Fr. Ben at Ruth Sts. Peter and Paul on April 1, 2, and 3, 2014.

I hope this mission was a grace-filled event and that everyone who wished to make a general confession of their life was able to do so. The questions that many parishioners submitted were excellent and it was necessary for everyone to hear Fr. Ben's answers.

Thanks to Lon Rinn who made DVD's of the talks. Most people who wished copies of the DVD's signed up and paid for them. When they are ready, they will be sent out to those who signed up. Lon will also send a few extras to the parish, just in case a DVD might be defective. You will be able to bring the defective one to the parish office and trade it in for one that works.

Thanks to Brenda Heilig, parish secretary, for working on the publicity for the mission, months in advance. Thanks to Jane Wyatt, sacristan for setting up for the Masses and opening the church early for the mission. Thanks to those altar servers who served Fr. Ben's Masses on Sunday. Thanks also to all my former parishioners who came all the way from Merrill to join us. Thanks to Dodie McCormack for cooking the delicious meals each day for Fr. Ben and myself and thanks to those Annunciation parishioners who also sent food, snacks, and deserts to the rectory. The rectory freezer and refrigerator are plenty full for awhile. We were spoiled this week.

Our normal Lenten schedule of spiritual exercises will continue this week. I look forward to seeing you all.

Blessings,

Fr. Craig G. Carolan
