Stewardship

In today's second reading, St. Paul prays that the Thessalonians may be strengthened "in every good deed and word." May we, too, be strengthened and empowered to use our time and talents for the good of others.

Dear Parishioners,

November is the month of All Souls. We remember in prayer all the Holy Souls in Purgatory. Purgatory is a theological term that the church introduced to capture the biblical concept of the purification of souls before they enter heaven. Since God is all good and perfect in every sense of the word, anyone who has not been purified could not possibly enter into the fullness of his presence and survive. Hence, God created the merciful state we call purgatory for all the faithful souls who must atone for some weakness or sin in their lives. The souls in purgatory are joyful in that they know they are destined for heaven, but haven't quite arrived yet. The souls in purgatory cannot pray for themselves. Therefore, they count very much on our prayers, Masses, and sacrifices in order to shorten their time in purgatory and to enter into the fullness of the presence of God in heaven.

As we remember the souls of our departed parishioners, you may wish to update your loved one's page of the memorial binder at the front door of church. Also, you are welcome to create an altar of the dead on the side altars of church. Simply bring a picture of your deceased loved one and place it on Mary's side altar or the side altar of the Sacred Heart of Jesus at Saint Mary's, or on the table at St. Michael's.

Last Friday, November 1st we celebrated the harvest of All Saints, a Holy Day of Obligation. Saturday, November 2nd we remembered all of our loved ones who may not be official saints, but who are destined to be among all the saints in heaven.

In times past, Pope Benedict XV had granted permission to each priest to celebrate three holy masses on All Soul's Day because of the great slaughter of World War I of 1914-1918. Our Lectionary still has an abundance of readings to choose from for All Soul's day and the Missal has three different Mass that might be said on that day.

Thank you to the younger children who accompanied me for the cemetery blessing at St. Mary's Church. Also, thank you to the older children who so beautifully participated in the Mass by serving, reading, offering the petitions, singing, and by bringing up the gifts. Thank you to those adults who accompanied me for the blessing of St. Edward's Cemetery, St. Michael's Cemetery and those who prepared the soup supper following.

Congratulations to the Warriors for their play-off win last week. This week the Warriors play my home-town team the Owen-Gage Bulldogs. It promises to be a good game.

*Blessings,
Fr. Craig*

THANKSGIVING OUTREACH

There will be a second collection next week to cover the cost of perishable goods for the Thanksgiving baskets delivered to needy people in our community.

We are, also, in need of non-perishable goods; they can be dropped off to the Parish Office during office hours.

If you are able to help on November 23rd at 9:30am with packing or delivering, please contact the office (989) 7387521

"CAN TABS"

BOOK OF LIFE

The month of November is a special time to honor our parish deceased. Each family is invited to add to or update the "Books of Life" displayed in the entry of each church. Blank sheets with directives are in the back of each binder to add to these books of remembrance. Please join in honoring our beloved deceased by keeping their memories "alive".

BUCKETS FOR HAITI

Three "buckets" have been placed at each church entry with lists of items useful to the people of Haiti. After Masses next weekend (Nov. 16&17) these buckets will join with those of Sacred Heart Parish in downtown Detroit to support the parish

CLOTHE-A-CHILD GIFT BOXES

Undecorated Gift Boxes will be needed for our December 7th Faith Formation Class. Boxes with separate tops, large enough to hold a complete set of clothing for ages from infant to 16 years old. Boxes can be left in church entries or at the St. Edward Parish House until Friday, December 6.

A FAITH FORMATION THANK YOU

The generously filled gift boxes for the Good Samaritan project will join with a national collection next weekend. Any lingering boxes will be welcome next weekend at the church entries or at St. Edward Parish House.
